Hear The Wise Men

You will find poetry nowhere, unless you bring some with you.

* * *

O Beauty! find thyself in love, not in the flattery of the mirror.

* * *

It is easy to promise, but alas! how easy to forget.

* * *

Let your life lightly dance on the edges of time, like dew on top of a leaf.

* * *

We are shaped and fashioned by what we love.

* * *

Death's stamp gives value to the coin of life, making it possible to buy with life what is truly precious.

* * *

Faith is the pencil of the soul that pictures heavenly things.

* * *

Heaven must be in me, before I can be in heaven.

* * *

Let him only see the thorns who has eyes to see the rose.

* * *

Love! when you come with the burning lamp of pain in your hand. I can see your face and know you as bliss.

* * *

It is better in prayer to have a heart without words than words without a heart.

* * *

Life is a flower of which love is the honey.

* * *

It is better to have loved and lost, than not to have loved at all.

* * *

SORROWS are our best educators. A man can see further through a tear than a telescope.
